

Press Release

The Architect Show 2022

The unique premium event for architecture & design in Greece was a huge success, with a record number of visitors.

The special concept and vision of the Architect Show is not only being upgraded every year, but it seems to exceed all expectations in terms of acceptance and dynamic establishment. The fourth edition proved that the Architect Show is an innovative platform that perfectly meets the needs of the architectural community.

From 10 to 11 December, The Architect Show 2022 at the Metropolitan EXPO exhibition centre became the main gathering place for 6,000 visitors, architects, engineers, designers and constructors for two days of networking with 150 top brands, information from more than 60 keynote speeches and inspiration from a total of 6 thematic innovative installations!

The organiser MEDEXPO S.A., fully satisfied by both the results and the rave reviews it received from exhibitors and visitors for this unique and innovative B2B exhibition experience for architecture and design, has already begun preparations for the next event in December 2023!
