

ROTA TEXTILE EXPO

Final Countdown to Rota Textile Expo!

Rota Textile Expo, the trade fair of Southeast Europe about home textiles, curtains, soft furnishings, interior shading, carpets and wallpapers, will be the ultimate meeting place for the industry from 29 to 31 March 2024 at Metropolitan Expo, in Athens, Greece!

The entire industry will meet in an ideal place for entrepreneurship, renewing existing business contacts, but also creating new ones. During the three days of Rota Textile Expo, the exhibitors will have the opportunity to present the new trends of the sector in front of an exclusively targeted and professional audience.

At Rota Textile Expo, visitors will be impressed by the exhibitors' modern stands and their products' variety, enjoying the services of a premium exhibition in an advanced exhibition centre.

The House of Trends as a highlight of the show!

In addition to the pioneering trends of the sector, at Rota Textile Expo, visitors will have the opportunity to enjoy another unique exhibition experience, the House of Trends!

The House of Trends is a specially designed area of high aesthetics, which will host high-quality products and showcase all the new trends, attracting the interest of B2B visitors.

Rota Textile Expo will be rendered the channel of communication between the wholesale professionals and the stores, creating a business network that will open new routes of development for the industry.
